Exhibit D

The CIA's Office of Inspector General published a final report in June 2005 entitled Central Intelligence Agency's Office of Inspector General Report On Central Intelligence Agency Accountability Regarding Findings and Conclusions of the Report of the Joint Inquiry into Intelligence Community Activities Before and After the Terrorist Attacks of September 11, 2001.

The reports states that no one in the CIA station responsible for monitoring al-Qaeda threats referred the information regarding Mihdhar's visa to the United States to the appropriate CIA personnel who are authorized to collect foreign intelligence in the United States in conjunction with the FBI.
